DANIELS TO ENTERTAIN EIU ANNUITANTS

CHARLESTON – The Eastern Illinois University Annuitants Association will hold its summer chapter meeting Friday, June 9, in the Tarble Arts Center on Eastern's campus. A coffee hour is scheduled to begin at 8:30 a.m., and will be followed by the program at 9.

Tenor Jerry L. Daniels will present selections from the musicals of Rodgers & Hammerstein, Lerner & Loewe, Cole Porter, George Gershwin and Jerome Kern. In a segment Daniels likes to refer to as "They don't write 'em like they used to," he will sing some of the more well-known tunes from musicals such as "Camelot," "My Fair Lady," "Porgy and Bess," "Brigadoon" and "The King and I."

Daniels has been a professor of voice and director of music theatre and opera at Eastern since 1982. He has performed more than 30 major opera and oratorio roles in regional settings and was a featured performer of the Northwest Vocal Ensemble.
